

STEWART MELVIN & FROST

ATTORNEYS AT LAW
AN UNCOMMON PRACTICE

BROOK DAVIDSON
Managing Partner

ABOUT THE FIRM

At Stewart, Melvin & Frost, LLP, we offer our clients an uncommon depth of focus and a tradition of exceeding expectations.

From our senior partners to our legal assistants, Stewart, Melvin & Frost is a firm of specialists. Each of our attorneys and staff members has significant experience and expertise in his or her specialty within the areas of business law, tax law and estate planning, real estate transactions, mediation and arbitration, and litigation. We believe that specialization allows us to meet the complex needs of our clients at an unparalleled level.

GET IN TOUCH

Email: bdavidson@smf-law.com

Phone: (770) 536-0101

Office Location:

Stewart, Melvin & Frost, LLP
Hunt Tower, Suite 600
200 Main Street
Gainesville, GA 30501

EXPERIENCE

Brook joined Stewart Melvin & Frost's probate litigation practice in February of 2015. She has since been named the firm's Managing Partner. She works with clients to develop estate plans and provide representation through the probate, administration, guardianship and conservatorship process.

EDUCATION

A Hall County native, Brook is a graduate of Brenau University and continues to serve on the University's Conflict Resolution and Legal Studies Advisory Board. Brook went on to the Georgia State University College of Law and soon thereafter graduated from the prestigious State Bar of Georgia's Young Lawyers Division Leadership Academy. She's even thrice been named as a Georgia Super Lawyer Rising Star.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- Member of the executive board of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Lanier.
- Past-President and member of the West Hall High School Touchdown Club.
- Previous Associate Director for the Greater Hall Chamber of Commerce.
- Active member of Christ Place Church in Flowery Branch.