

Charles Pharr, International Society of Appraisers – ISA CAPP

Bio

Charles Pharr Jr. is a lifetime resident of Georgia. Charles initially was selling antiques from his home then started Aardvark Antiques in 1997. The antique store is run by Charles' lovely wife and partner Belle Pharr. It has been voted North Georgia's and Hall County's #1 favorite antique store many times.

After many requests for appraisals in 2001 Charles became a member of the International Society of Appraisers which is the world's largest appraisal organization. Charles is now designated ISA CAPP, Certified member appraising personal property. This is the highest designation bestowed by the International Society of Appraisers and there are less than 150 with that designation in North America.

In 2016 he purchased Four Seasons Auction Gallery which holds several auctions each year selling fine art, antiques, Persian Rugs, Jewelry, and many other items.

Charles loves skydiving, sports, music, church, and their 2 dogs Stella and Tango.
